The final men's event of the 2016 season attracted only 56 players, which was lower than last year's attendance. The turnout was down, even though the weather did somewhat cooperate and only rained for about 10 minutes total. Granted it was cloudy, dull and dreary. And it was Chuck Maguire's 60th birthday.

The pace of play was excellent. Utilizing a cross-over start at 12:30 seemed to work really well. The improved pace of play was a welcome change from the pace of play for other events. The chicken & ribs dinner proved to be very popular with the players.

The Captain provided a summary of the 2016 golf year, congratulated the winners of events and spoke about the events during the year.

He particularly noted the tremendous effort of Rick Udall, who is stepping aside from running the Junior Program at the end of this year. Rick has been at the helm of the Junior Program for 9 years – time to take a well deserved break.

The Pro Shop will be coordinating the junior events next year.

Special mention was also given to Ron Mathews, who volunteered numerous times during the year to come out and assist with scorekeeping details.
